CSI Junior Investigator
Travel Award Application Form
(due date, Monday, February 10, 2025)

19th Annual International Congress of Immunology
Vienna, Austria, August 17 – 22, 2025

- A junior investigator is defined as within 6 years of your first faculty appointment. If the researcher took a parental leave during this six-year period, consideration will be provided at double time for the parental leave. For example, a researcher who took six months for parental leave would benefit from a 12 month extension of their eligibility
- A maximum of one travel award in each category will be given per laboratory.
- Cannot already be receiving funds from CSI to attend this meeting.
- The results of the competition will be announced by March 31, 2025.
- Applicant must submit an abstract for the ICI meeting in which they are either first or senior author.
- Bursaries will be awarded on the basis of merit (not on the perceived financial need of the applicant).
- You must be a current member of CSI and have paid your dues for at least 2025 and 2024.
